

Information and consent form – religious instruction and other instruction

7 December 2022

Dear Parent/Carer,

We would like to inform you about the religious instruction (RI) arrangements in 2023. If you wish to make any changes to your current preferences regarding your child's participation in RI or other instruction, please complete the bottom section of this form. If there are no changes to be made, there is no need to return the form to the school.

Queensland state schools embrace a multitude of cultural, religious and non-religious beliefs. Under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, schools are to provide RI each week if approached by a faith group seeking to provide RI and students of that faith attend the school.

RI informs students about the beliefs and values of a particular religion. It is delivered by volunteers of a faith group using instructional materials approved by that faith group and the Queensland Department of Education.

All RI instructors must hold a blue card and participate in compulsory Student Protection and Code of Conduct training. RI instructors are only entitled to deliver the RI program outlined below. A school staff member will be present during the delivery of RI.

Participation in RI is not compulsory. Any student (except Prep students) may participate in RI if a parent has given consent and indicated a religion on the Application for Student Enrolment Form or in other written advice to the principal. A parent, regardless of their own faith (if any), may choose to give consent for their child to participate in one of the RI programs listed below.

Any child not participating in RI, or whose nominated religion is not represented within the RI program/s at the school, will receive other instruction by a qualified member of school staff in a separate location during the time RI is held. Other instruction will relate to subject areas that have already been covered in class.

At any time, parents may provide written instruction to the principal to change their preference for their child to participate in or be withdrawn from RI. If a parent does not update their consent by completing and returning this form, their previous written instructions to the school will continue to apply.

The faith group that provide religious instructors to deliver the program at our school is listed below:

Arrangements for programs offered	Name of RI program	Delivery details
Cooperative program • Christian Cooperative Program including all Christian Faith groups	• Connect B1 program	• Commencing Term 2, Week 1 • Year levels 1 thru 6 • Tuesday / 30 minutes each week

The aims and objectives of each program are attached for your information.

Further details about our school’s RI program/s and other instruction are available on the school’s website and in the school’s enrolment handbook. You may also wish to access the Department’s RI policy statement available at <http://education.qld.gov.au/schools/school-operations/ri-policy-statement.html> for further information.

The school will advise parents of child/ren participating in these programs if a faith group requires funds to cover the expense of materials used in RI. At present, local churches provide funds for the materials used in the Christian Cooperative RI Program at Russell Island State School.

You will also be notified of any changes to RI or other instruction.

If you would like further information about RI or other instruction at our school, or require assistance with completing the form below, please contact us on 3400 9333.

Your sincerely

Ms. Leanne McMahon
